Anderson, how's it going? So I heard you got a new job, that's pretty cool! Seems like you really like it there too! Everyone seems nice, so that's a bonus too. Me, on the other hand, I'm just stuck in the same old rut. Billy has the flu right now, so my wife's at home taking care of him. Lily's doing really well in school; she currently is on the straight A Honor Roll for her class! You have a good day now, Sarah, we'll talk more later.
